

Parkestone Foundation Grant 2017 Report

The Project Name - Feast 21 Then and Now Exhibition at Raj House 54 Hyde St Adelaide

Produced by Feast Adelaide Queer Arts and Cultural Festival

Description of Project An important exhibition for Feast 2017 spanning 21 years of Feast displaying programs, posters, photographs, artifacts in a series of rooms in Raj House

Funds received from Parkestone Foundation $600 towards materials for the exhibition

Outcomes Achieved by 21 Then and Now Exhibition

Engagement of community members contributing to the Exhibition

Displaying 21 years of Feast's queer arts, community events and projects

Honouring community leaders who are no longer with us

Affirming the often untold queer history and people in Adelaide

Educating the queer community on their history especially queer youth

Celebrating the stories and memories of queer community Elders

Achieving high attendances, positive feedback and community pride

Presenting a beautifully designed and presented exhibition including historic posters, writings, badges, T shirts, personal memories, a video on a loop to enjoy and audio tours

Requirements of the Exhibition

Hanging devices, display materials, design and printing of exhibition panels.

Raj House has a series of rooms to be used for the exhibition they were not exhibition spaces.

Additional Funds Achieved for the Exhibition

$2,000 was received from ARTS SA for the Curator, Designer Jackie Wurm

The project has no funds for materials, which is why we are applying for this grant.

People involved in producing the 21st Birthday Exhibition

Margie Fischer - Feast Producer Project coordinator, collector of items for the exhibition

Jackie Wurm – Exhibition Curator, Designer

Nikki Sullivan – Exhibition Advisor

Trevor Hobbs volunteer performer for 21 years Assistant Coordinator

Raymond Zada and Violet Buckskin – Aboriginal contribution to Feast

Helen Sheldon – Feast General Manager

James Landseer – Feast Publicity/Marketing Coordinator

Project Dates

July- Oct Exhibition planning, designing, collection of exhibit items, design and construction

10 Nov- 20 Dec Exhibition open

This project fulfilled all of objectives of the Foundation to

- Foster individual and community LGBTIQ+ pride
- Promote societal acceptance of LGBTIQ+ people
- Celebrate LGBTIQ+ people and their achievements
- Advocate for social and legal equality for LGBTIQ+ people
- Promote awareness of issues of importance to LGBTIQ+ people & the wider community

Projects Budget

Expenditure

$2000 Curator/Designer Fee

$400 design and printing of museum panels and graphics

In kind support

$120 Feast Festival registration

$2,000 minimum in kind time spent on coordinating the exhibition Margie Fischer

$1,000 in kind time for Trevor Hobbs

$500 Venue hire Raj House (minimum 5 rooms for 6 weeks)

Entry to the Exhibition will be free

A Heartfelt Thank You to the Parkestone Foundation for your ongoing and much needed and appreciated support for LGBTIQ projects in Adelaide.

